Matic Insurance Services and PCLender Partner to Streamline Homeowners Insurance

Matic's solution enables borrowers to find the best policy instantly

SHERMAN OAKS, CALIF. —March 22, 2017-- Matic Insurance Services, Inc., the nation's largest digital homeowner's insurance agency for mortgage borrowers, announced its partnership with PCLender, LLC, a leading provider of mortgage loan application software, loan origination software and data security solutions for the mortgage industry. Matic will use its diverse, nationwide network of insurance carriers to help PCLender's clients seamlessly integrate buying homeowners insurance into the digital mortgage process.

Homebuyers using the PCLender platform can now satisfy their homeowners insurance requirements in seconds. Matic works closely with a network of A+ rated insurance carriers in all 50 states, giving borrowers the ability to instantly get a firm quote and choose from customized, trusted policies with just a few clicks.

"We are now taking the digital mortgage experience further," says Lionel Urban, founder and CEO of PCLender. "Matic simplifies and streamlines the homeowner's insurance-buying process into our total mortgage solution, so lenders have one less hassle to worry about when completing their mortgages."

"Matic's digital approach to purchasing homeowners insurance is a perfect match for PCLender's technologically advanced platform," says Aaron Schiff, co-founder and CEO of Matic Insurance Services. "Now, loan officers and their borrowers who work with PCLender are able to move through the mortgage process faster than ever before. Borrowers can effortlessly find a homeowners policy for their new home, loan officers close loans more quickly, and everyone wins in the end."
